

The Vertebrate Five Worksheet

1. Find a bird species in the zoo and point out the bird adaptations by drawing a picture of the bird. Circle the correct characteristics of birds from the list below:

Feathers    Fur    Lay eggs
Beaks    Wings    Ectotherm

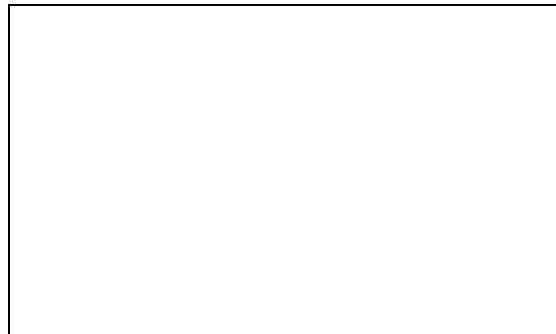

2. Find a mammal species in the zoo and point out the mammal adaptations by drawing a picture of the mammal. Circle the correct characteristics of mammals from the list below:

Fur    Gives live birth    Scales
Legs, fins, & wings    Endotherm

3. Find a reptile species in the zoo and point out the reptile adaptations by drawing a picture of the reptile. Circle the correct characteristics of reptiles from the list below:

Scales    Lays eggs    Ectotherm
Endotherm    Most have legs

4. Find an amphibian species in the zoo and point out the amphibian adaptations by drawing a picture of the amphibian. Circle the correct characteristics of amphibians from the list below:

Slimy skin    Ectotherm    Scales
Has fins and legs    Takes care of young

5. Bonus! What is the last group of vertebrates? Hint: They have gills, slimy scales, and fins and are ectothermic.