Fecal Fest – POO at the ZOO!
Saturday, May 14, 2016
1:00pm – 3:00pm

Parents – come spend a crappy afternoon with your kids at the Zoo!

Join us for a fun and slightly different afternoon as you test your “number two” knowledge. Animals use poop to build homes, hide from enemies, attract mates, send messages, cool off – some even eat it! Learn the weird, bizarre and sometimes funny ways animals use their poop!

What’s all the stink about?

- Crappy Crafts
- Gastronomical games
- Turd Trivia
- Exhibits on Excrement
- Bison “chip” accuracy contest
- Scatology
- Unique gifts made from animal poo for sale

This is one smelly event you won't want to miss!

The event is free with Zoo admission:

Adult (13-61) $4

Senior (62 and up) $3

Children (3-12) $2

2 and Under Free

For more information visit the Zoo’s website at www.amarillozoo.org or follow us on Facebook.

The Zoo is located at NE 24th Ave and Dumas Highway inside Thompson Park.
