

Rules & Regulations

- Pumpkins entered into the contest must be carved. Painting and accessories may be added to accent the carving design. Any pumpkin that is not carved will be disqualified from the contest.
- Must be Family Friendly (Inappropriate displays will not be accepted)
- Each pumpkin entered shall have an entry form. Upon registration, pumpkins will be given an entry number for judging.
- There are no entry fees for this contest.
- A ticket to Boo at the Zoo will be given to each person who submits one pumpkin.
- Judges will award a ribbon and a ticket for one to Boo at the Zoo to the (a) Funniest (b) Scariest (c) Most Creative.
- By entering into the contest, contestants give the City of Amarillo authorization to use photos of the pumpkin/contestants and names of the contestants/assistants for use on its website, social media and through media outlets.
- Although the City of Amarillo will do everything possible to ensure the pumpkins are safe during the event, Boo at the Zoo, including overnight security; the City of Amarillo, Amarillo Zoo, no sponsor shall be held liable for any pumpkins that may be damaged, lost or stolen during the duration.
- Pumpkins must be dropped off with entry form on Thursday, Oct 20th from 2pm - 7pm.

Amarillo Zoo Pumpkin Carving Contest Entry Form

Name: _____ Age: _____

Address: _____

City/State/ZIP: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Pumpkin's Name: _____

Carving Category: (Select only one)

Funniest Scariest Most Creative

I have read and understand the rules & regulations for the Amarillo Zoo Pumpkin Carving Contest. By signing I agree to all terms within the rules. For contestants under 18 years of age, parent/legal guardian signature is required.

Contestant's Signature

Date

Parent/Legal Guardian Signature

Date